Notes for Sermon

Have Intimacy with God

Matthew 6,9-13

Put out my eyes, and I can see you still,
slam my ears too, and I can hear you yet;
and without any feet can go to you;
and tongueless, I can conjure you at will.
Break off my arms, I shall take hold of you
and grasp you with my heart as with a hand;
arrest my heart, my brain will beat as true;
and if you set this brain of mine afire,
Then on my blood-stream I yet will carry you.
- Rainer Maria Rilke, a German poet

This, then, is how you should pray: (v9)
_____ to pray (Οὕτως οὖν προσεύχεσθε ὑμεῖς·) Οὕτως - in this manner.

Two surprising points. Our Father in heaven
The first word: _____ (Πάτερ).
Abba is _____.
Reason for Πάτερ, abba is _____.

John 1:12 the right to become _____ of God”
Romans 8:15 adoption to _____. ‘Abba, Father.’
Mat 6:8 ...for your _____ knows what you need ...
Mat 7:11 ...your _____ in heaven give good gifts ...

Psalm 5:3

In the morning, Lord, you hear my voice;
in the morning I lay my requests before you
and wait expectantly.

the food that nourishes our bodies,
even the love of family and friends.
We have forgotten that all these gifts come from you.
We have sinned with our lips and in our hearts.
Unlike your servant Job,
when we are tested we do not say,
“Shall we receive the good at the hand of God,
and not receive the bad?”
Forgive our selfish ways,
and turn our hearts to you.

Words of Assurance

Even before we ask, God promises to redeem us and forgive us.
In God's abundant grace, our feet stand on level ground and we are clothed in honor and glory. Amen.

Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving

Christ be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to God.
Let us give our thanks to the Holy One.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is a right, a good, and a joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give our thanks to you,
Ruler of the Universe,
for you bring forth grain from the earth,
and fruit from the vine.

You make the rain to fall in its season,
and the sun to shine, giving light and warmth
to all your creatures.

By your word, the trees give their fruit,
the crops and grasses flourish,
and all your creatures grow in grace.

And so, with your creatures on earth
and all the heavenly chorus,
we praise your name
and join their unending hymn, saying:

Holy, holy, holy One, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in your holy name.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and holy is your child, Jesus Christ.
When he saw the little children, he called them to him,
taking them up in his arms,
laying his hands on them, and blessing them.
In his suffering and death,
he taught us the true meaning of love,
of accepting and doing your will
for the healing of the world.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us,
he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread,
gave it to his disciples, and said:
"Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, he took the cup,
gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:
"Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant,
poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died.

Christ has risen.

Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
that we may become one with Christ,
one with each other, and one in communion
with you and with all the world.
Protector of the innocent, Spirit of grace,
Bread of heaven, we praise you now,
tomorrow, and always.
Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Giving the Bread and Cup

Prayer after Receiving

Thank you, God,
for receiving all who seek you
in this holy mystery,
and giving all you are to every one of us,
your flesh and blood
in our flesh and blood.
By the power of the Spirit,
send us to spread the good news
of the Saviors, Jesus Christ, everywhere;
to all, who long for your touching, teaching, and healing;
and join them in your work
that makes all things new;
through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
