Bringing In the Light of Christ

Announcements

Advent Candlelighting First Sunday in Advent

Acolyte 1: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness -- on them light has shined... For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:2, 6)

Acolyte 2: Today we remember the prophets of old, who demanded to be heard, who dared to speak of a child to come, unexpected liberator of the people, vulnerable incarnation of the Holiest of Holies, a new name for God.

People: Today we give thanks for the prophets among us, who bring to us surprising new visions of hope, who challenge us to think outside the box, who show us a future we never anticipated.

Acolyte 1 & 2: On this first Sunday of Advent, we light this candle as a symbol of the prophets who renew our faith and remind us of what may be.
(Light a purple candle.)

Lord of forgiveness, we confess our sins.

We tear our hearts to repent of our own sins, our neighbor's sins, and all humans' sins.

With your mercy, forgive us so that we may forgive with the power of forgiveness.

May we be the tool of peace to unravel complex knots.

In the name of the Redeemer. Amen.

1. Do you agree that we are accomplices? If so, how will our lives be different?
2. Remember your experiences of forgiving, or of being forgiven.
Also remember experiences of not forgiving or not being forgiven.
And think about the power of forgiveness through those experiences.

Joys Concerns Prayers

* Prayer of Confession

L: Loving Creator, you call us to rejoice
in your promise of the birth that is to come,
but we are afraid.

P: You invite us into a world
where justice and righteousness prevail,
but we turn away in fear.

L: We long for an easy path into your promised world,
but you warn us that there is no easy way.

P: Birth new life within us,
that we may abide in your perfect love —
the love that casts out fear.

* Words of Assurance

God's mercy and steadfast love endure,
strengthening our hearts and overcoming our fears.
God will remove every obstacle
that keeps us from being the body of Christ.
Amen.

* Passing the Peace of Christ

Anticipating the blessings of the one who is coming,
let us offer one another signs of Christ's peace:
The peace of Christ be with you, always.
And also with you.

Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and good and joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth:

You formed us in your image
and breathed into us the breath of life.
When we turned away, and our love failed,
your love remained steadfast.

You delivered us from captivity,
made covenant to be our sovereign God,
and spoke to us through your prophets,
who looked for that day
when justice shall roll down like waters
and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream,
when nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war anymore.

And so,
with Your people on earth and all the company of heaven,
we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy
Lord, God of power and might;
Heaven and Earth are full of your glory.
Hoasna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest!

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ,
whom you sent in the fullness of time
to be a light to the nations.
You scatter the proud in the imagination of their hearts
and have mercy on those who fear you
from generation to generation.
You put down the mighty from their thrones
and exalt those of low degree.

You fill the hungry with good things,
and the rich you send empty away.
Your own Son came among us as a servant,
to be Emmanuel, your presence with us.

He humbled himself in obedience to your will
and freely accepted death on a cross.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection
you gave birth to your church,
delivered us from slavery to sin and death,
and made with us a new covenant by water and the spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us,
he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread,
gave it to his disciples, and said:
“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over, he took the cup,
gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:
“Drink from this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again!

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
that we may be for the world the body of Christ,
redeemed by his blood.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other,
and one in ministry to all the world,
until Christ comes in final victory,
and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your Holy Church
honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever.

Amen, Amen, Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Giving the Bread and Cup

Prayer after Receiving

Thank you, God,
for receiving all who seek you in this holy mystery,
and giving all you are to every one of us,
your flesh and blood in our flesh and blood.
Send us by your Spirit to hear the cries of all lives,
