

that in the breaking of this bread and the drinking of this wine we may know the presence of the living Christ and be renewed as the body of Christ for the world, redeemed by Christ's blood,
 until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at your table for ever.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever.

* Call to Worship (Psalm 107:1-9, 43 text from NIV)

L: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;

P: his love endures forever.

L: Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story—
those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,

P: those he gathered from the lands,
from east and west, from north and south.

L: Some wandered in desert wastelands, finding no way to a city where they could settle.

P: They were hungry and thirsty, and their lives ebbed away.

L: Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress.

P: He led them by a straight way to a city where they could settle.

L: Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for mankind,

P: for he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

(ALL)

Let the one who is wise heed these things and ponder the loving deeds of the Lord.

* Opening Hymn 140 Great Is Thy Faithfulness

* Opening Prayer

Loving and forgiving God,
be present with us now,
as we offer praise and thanksgiving
for the abundance we have received though your grace.

You have gathered us in,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south,
to be your people.

Like a loving parent,
you have sustained our needs—
sharing your love with us,
satisfying our thirst,
and filling our hunger with good things.
Help us, Lord, to heed your call,
that we might find deliverance through Christ Jesus, our Lord and Savior.
Amen.

Holy Communion

Lift up your hearts and give thanks to God.
Blessed are you, O God,
who with your Word and Holy Spirit created all things and called them good.

In Jesus Christ your Word became flesh and dwelt among us.
Through Jesus' suffering and death you took upon yourself our sin and death and destroyed their power for ever.

You raised from the dead this same Jesus,
who now reigns with you in glory,
and poured upon us your Holy Spirit,
making us the people of your new covenant.

On the night before meeting with death
Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to the disciples, and said:

"Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over Jesus took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to the disciples, and said:
"Drink from this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts,
