All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name

In the November 1799 issue of The Gospel Magazine there appeared an anonymous hymn entitled "On the Resurrection, the Lord is King", with the following lyrics:

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
bring forth the royal diadem,
and crown Him Lord of all."

BRINGING IN THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

ANNOUNCEMENTS

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Listen up, everyone!
God has given us work to do.
God has called each of us
before we were even born.
It was God who named us.
It is God who claims us.
The light of God's love shines in us.
Let's shine God's love into all the world!

*OPENING HYMN

155 All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name (verses 1-4)

*OPENING PRAYER

God of Isaiah,
you are our God, too.
You spoke to the prophets,
but your message did not end with them.
There is still work to be done,
and we pray to hear your call afresh.
Help us joyfully claim our role
as your beloved servants,
knowing that you provide
all that we need to do our work.
You walked with us before we were even born,
and you continue to hold us by the hand
each and every day of our lives.

*SCRIPTURE READINGS Genesis 33:1-11

<sup>1</sup>Jacob looked up and there was Esau, coming with his four hundred men; so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two female servants. <sup>2</sup>He put the female servants and their children in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph in the rear. <sup>3</sup>He himself went on ahead and bowed down to the ground seven times as he approached his brother. <sup>4</sup>But Esau ran to meet Jacob and embraced him; he threw his arms around his neck and kissed him. And they wept. <sup>5</sup>Then Esau looked up and saw the women and children. “Who are these with you?” he asked. Jacob answered, “They are the children God has graciously given your servant.” <sup>6</sup>Then the female servants and their children approached and bowed down. <sup>7</sup>Next, Leah and her children came and bowed down. Last of all came Joseph and Rachel, and they too bowed down. <sup>8</sup>Esau asked, “What’s the meaning of all these flocks and herds I met?” “To find favor in your eyes, my lord,” he said. <sup>9</sup>But Esau said, “I already have plenty, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself.” <sup>10</sup>“No, please!” said Jacob. “If I have found favor in your eyes, accept this gift from me. For to see your face is like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me favorably. <sup>11</sup>Please accept the present that was brought to you, for God has been gracious to me and I have all I need.” And because Jacob insisted, Esau accepted it.

95 Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow

The author, it was later revealed, was Rev. Edward Perronet. Edward was close to John Wesley and his brother and travelled with them for a time. Eventually, Edward broke with the Methodists and lived out his days pastoring a small church in Canterbury, where he died on January 22nd, 1792.

Edward Perronet’s hymn “All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name” is often called the “National Anthem of Christendom”. It also has a place in missionary history, being greatly used in evangelistic endeavors.

Rev. E. P. Scott, missionary to India, wrote of trying to reach a savage tribe in the Indian subcontinent. Ignoring the pleading of his friends, he set off into the dangerous territory. Several days later, he met a large party of warriors who surrounded him, their spears pointed at his heart. Expecting to die at any moment, Scott took out his violin, breathed a prayer, closed his eyes, and began singing, “All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name!” When he reached the words, “Let every kindred, every tribe,” he opened his eyes. There stood the warriors, some in tears, every spear lowered. Scott spent the next two years evangelizing the tribe.
